Why are there so many Baptist groups?

Let's start by examining the origins of the Baptist denomination

The Free Church movement!

To understand the Free Church Movement, we need to understand two thoughts:

To understand the Free Church Movement, we need to understand two thoughts:

The role of kings

To understand the Free Church Movement, we need to understand two thoughts:

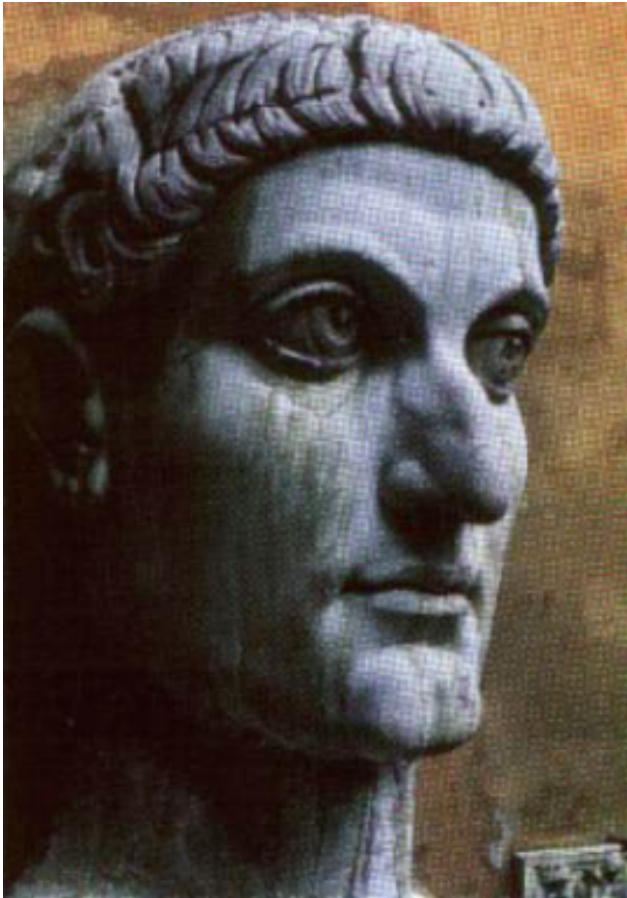

The role of kings

The role of church

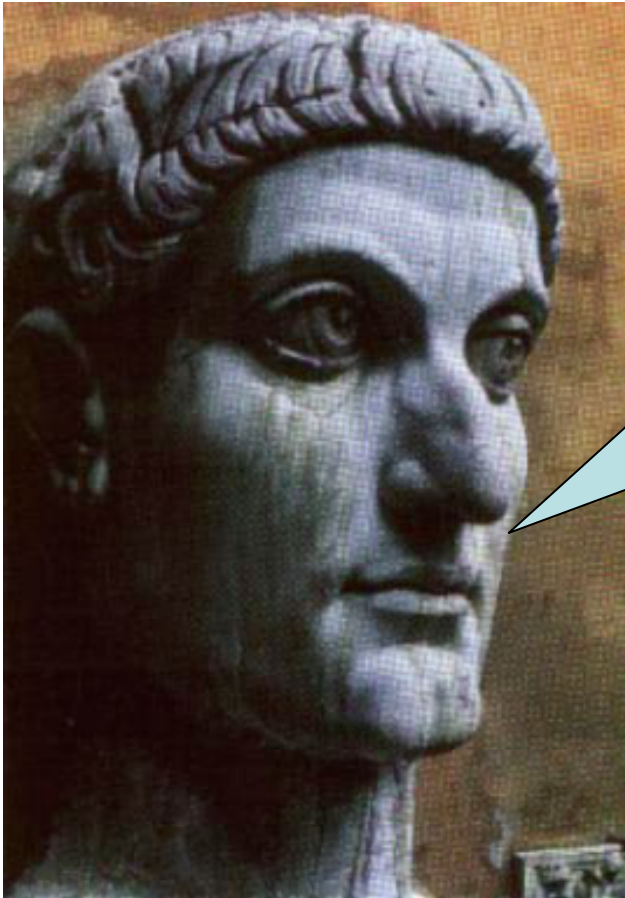

Who is society's ruler?

Who is society's ruler?

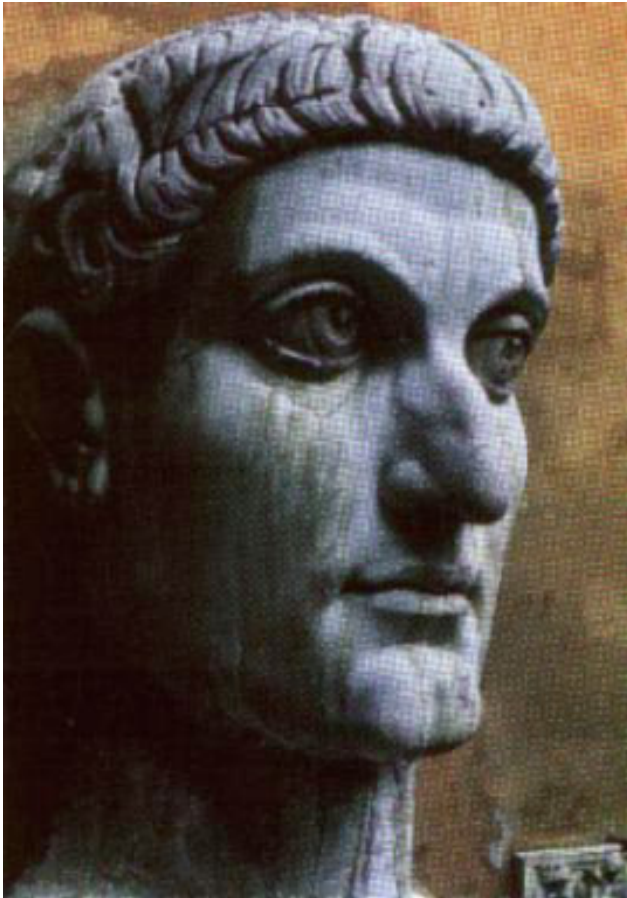

Who is society's ruler?

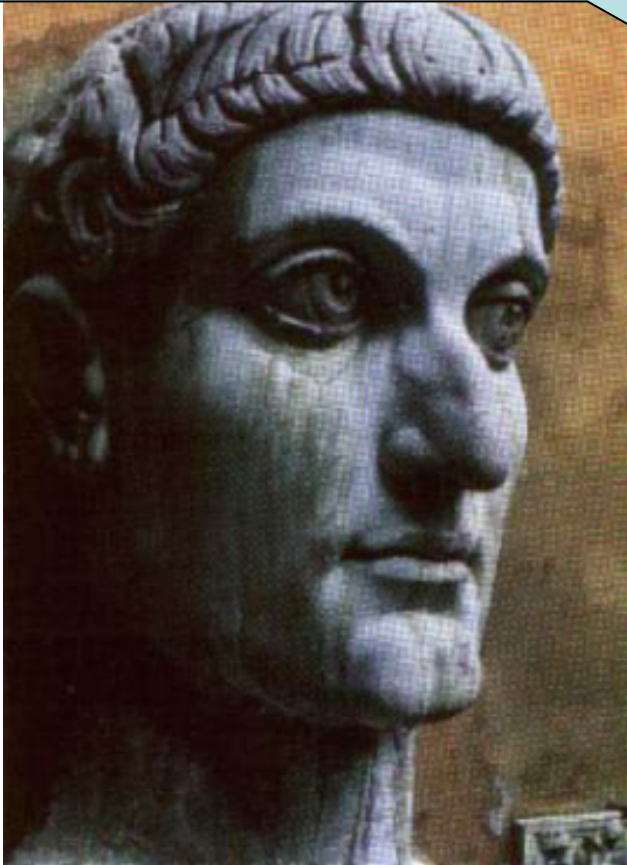

I, Constantine the Great, am your leader in all ways. That's the way God made it.

Who is society's ruler?

I, the pope, stand between everyone and God, so even the king is under me.

I, the pope, stand between everyone and God, so even the king is under me.

Who is society's ruler?

Yeah? Well not this king!

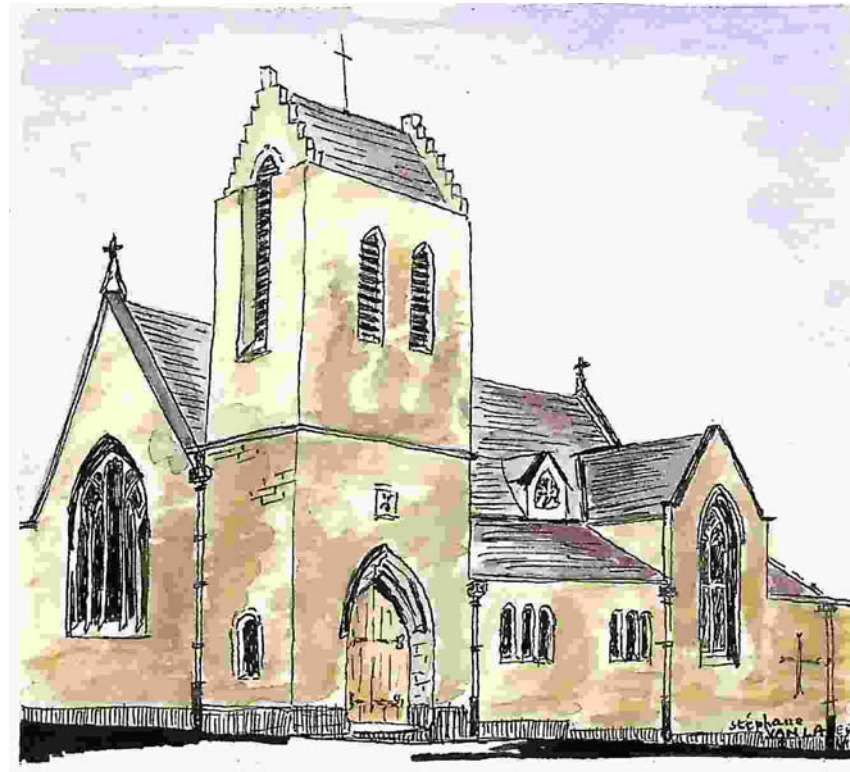

Who is society's ruler?

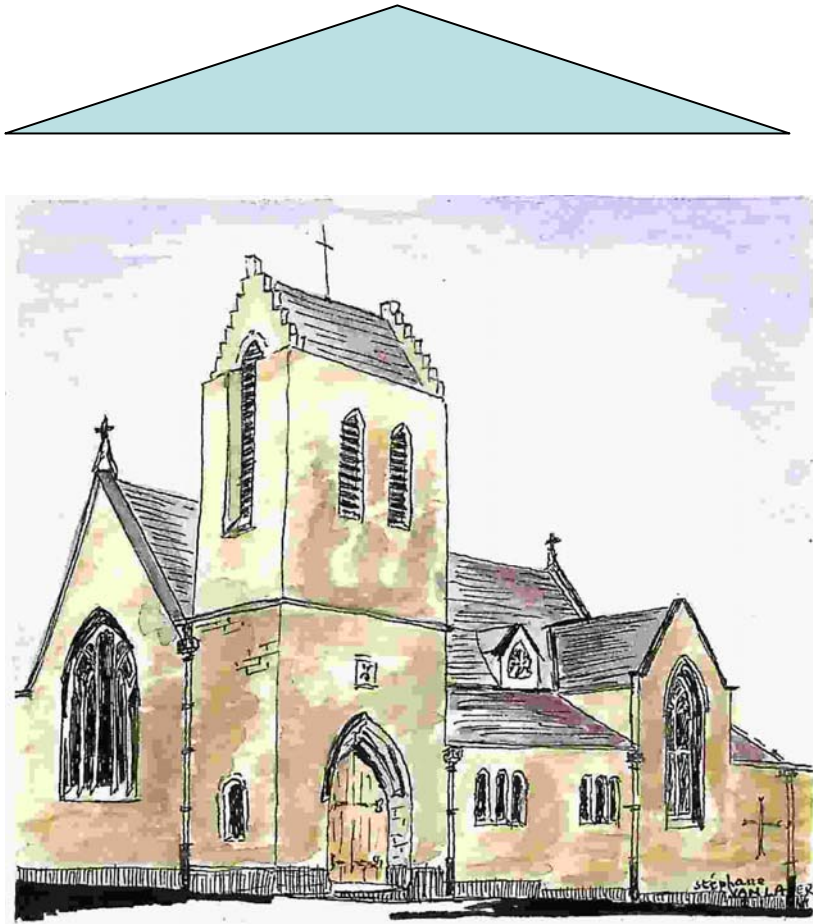

In England, God made me the ruler. Period.
Over all England, including the church.

The role of Church

Here's the way Thomas Helwys put it:

“Is it not most equal that men should choose their religion themselves, seeing they only must stand before the judgment seat of God to answer for themselves.”

God

God

God

But Peter himself told the Christians: “You are a chosen people, a royal priesthood ... that you might declare the praises of Him who called you out of darkness.”
(1 Pet. 2:9)

God

God

For there is one God
and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as a ransom
for all men.”
