O, Holy Night

O Holy Night! The stars are brightly shining, It is the night of the dear Saviour's birth. Long lay the world in sin and error pining. Till He appeared and the soul felt its worth. A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices, For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn. Fall on your knees! Oh, hear the angel voices! O night divine, the night when Christ was born; O night, O Holy Night , O night divine! O night, O Holy Night, O night divine!

Probably not “The” holy night

Shepherds kept watch in the fields from March through November!

Old theory: December 25 was the Roman celebration of Saturnalia

Better theory: December 25 was 9 months after March 25th!

On the twelfth day of Christmas ...

On the twelfth day of Christmas, my true love sent to me: Twelve drummers drumming, Eleven pipers piping, Ten lords a-leaping, Nine ladies dancing, Eight maids a-milking, Seven swans a-swimming, Six geese a-laying, Five golden rings, Four calling birds, Three French hens, Two turtle doves, And a partridge in a pear tree!

It Came Upon a Midnight Clear

It Came Upon The Midnight Clear That Glorious Song Of Old From Angels Bending Near The Earth To Touch Their Harps Of Gold Peace On The Earth Goodwill To Men From Heaven's All Gracious
King The World In Silent Stillness
Lay To Hear The Angels Sing

“For while gentle silence enveloped all things, and night in its swift course was now half gone, your [God’s] all-powerful word leapt from heaven.”
(Wisdom of Solomon 18:14-15)

We Three Kings

We three kings of Orient are Bearing gifts we traverse afar Field and fountain, moor and mountain Following yonder star

Kings?

“Nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn...

And all from Sheba will come, bearing gold and incense and proclaiming the praise of the LORD.”

(Isaiah 60:3,6)

Three?

“Meanwhile, Abimelech had come to him [Isaac] from Gerar, with Ahuzzath his personal adviser and Phicol the commander of his forces... Early the next morning the men swore an oath to each other. Then Isaac sent them on their way, and they left him in peace.” (Gen 26:26-31)

Three?

The first 'Noel!' the angels did say, Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay ...
And by the light of that same star, Three wise men came from country far; To seek for a King was their intent, And to follow the star wherever it went. Noel! Noel!
Noel! Noel! Born is the King of Israel!

While considering the Middle Ages... In the 1100's...

O come, O come, Emmanuel Redeem thy captive Israel
That into exile drear is gone Far from the face of God's dear son Rejoice! Rejoice!
Emmanuel Shall come to thee, O Israel.

She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins.” All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet: “The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel” which means, “God with us.” (Mt. 1:21-23)

Away in a Manger

Away in a manger, No crib for His bed The little Lord Jesus Laid down His sweet head The stars in the sky Looked down where He lay The little Lord Jesus Asleep on the hay.

The cattle are lowing The poor Baby wakes But little Lord Jesus No crying He makes. I love Thee, Lord Jesus Look down from the sky And stay by my cradle, 'Til morning is nigh.

O little town of Bethlehem How
still we see thee lie Above thy deep and dreamless sleep The silent stars go by Yet in thy dark streets shineth The everlasting Light
The hopes and fears of all the years Are met in thee tonight.

Jolly Ol' Saint Nicholas

Jolly ol' Saint Nicholas, lean your ear this way! Don't you tell a single soul; what I'm going to say: Christmas Eve is coming soon; now, you dear old man, Whisper what you'll bring to me; tell me if you can.

- 1822 moves to Christmas

'Twas the Night Before Christmas

'Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse; The stockings were hung by the chimney with care, In hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there; The children were nestled all snug in their beds, While visions of sugar-plums danced in their heads; And mamma in her 'kerchief, and I in my cap, Had just settled down for a long winter's nap, When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter, I sprang from the bed to see what was the matter. Away to the window I flew like a flash, Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash.

The moon on the breast of the new-fallen snow Gave the lustre of mid-day to objects below, When, what to my wondering eyes should appear, But a miniature sleigh, and eight tiny reindeer, With a little old driver, so lively and quick, I knew in a moment it must be St. Nick. More rapid than eagles his coursers they came, And he whistled, and shouted, and called them by name; "Now, Dasher! now, Dancer! now, Prancer and Vixen! On, Comet! on Cupid! on, Donder and Blitzen! To the top of the porch! to the top of the wall! Now dash away! dash away! dash away all!" As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly, When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky, So up to the house-top the coursers they flew, With the sleigh full of toys, and St. Nicholas too.
And then, in a twinkling, I heard on the roof The prancing and pawing of each little hoof. As I drew in my hand, and was turning around, Down the chimney St.
Nicholas came with a bound. He was dressed all in fur, from his head to his foot, And his clothes were all tarnished with ashes and soot; A bundle of toys he had flung on his back, And he looked like a peddler just opening his pack. His eyes -- how they twinkled! his dimples how merry! His cheeks were like roses, his nose like a cherry! His droll little mouth was drawn up like a bow, And the beard of his chin was as white as the snow; The stump of a pipe he held tight in his teeth, And the smoke it encircled his head like a wreath; He had a broad face and a little round belly, That shook, when he laughed like a bowlful of jelly. He was chubby and plump, a right jolly old elf, And I laughed when I saw him, in spite of myself; A wink of his eye and a twist of his head, Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread; He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work, And filled all the stockings; then turned with a jerk, And laying his finger aside of his nose, And giving a nod, up the chimney he rose; He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a whistle, And away they all flew like the down of a thistle. But I heard him exclaim, ere he drove out of sight,

"Happy Christmas to all, and to all a good-night."

O, Christmas Tree

O Christmas Tree! O Christmas Tree! How lovely are your branches; O Christmas Tree! O Christmas Tree! How lovely are your branches; Not only green when summer's here, But also when 'tis cold and drear. O Christmas Tree! O Christmas Tree! Thy leaves are so unchanging!
