

Church History Literacy

Gregory the Great

Lesson 38

Biblical-Literacy.com

© Copyright 2006 by W. Mark Lanier. Permission hereby granted to reprint this document in its entirety without change, with reference given, and not for financial profit.

R E
O M
M P A I N R E

R E
O M
M P A I N R
E

R E
O M
M P A I N R E

Church

R E
O M
M P A I N R E

Church

R E
O M
M P A I N R
E

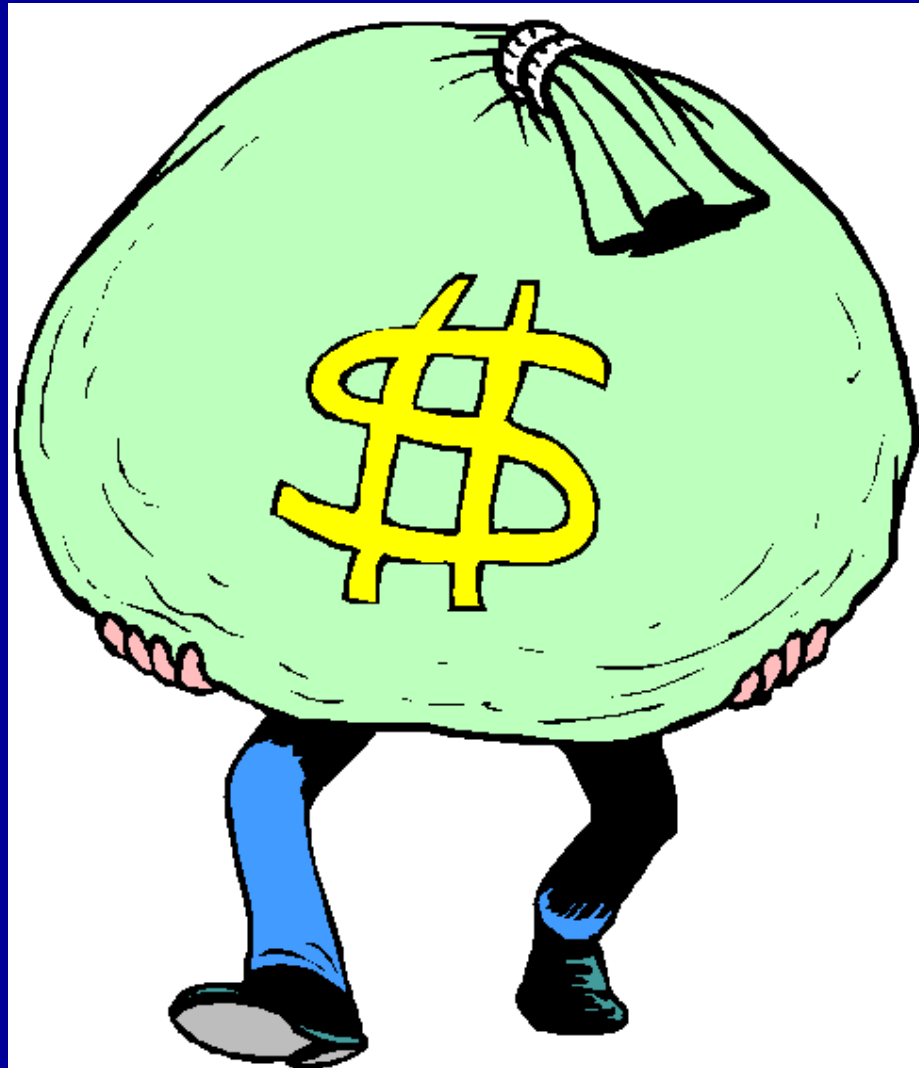

Gregory the Great - Last of the Church Fathers

Gregory's Upbringing

Great Heritage / Family

Great Wealth /Privileges

Great Education

Constant Crisis and Danger

His Parents take a different turn and go into ministry

Gregory makes the same turn

Gregory makes
the same turn

Meanwhile, back at Monte Cassino ...

Gregory spends 6 years in Constantinople

Gregory spends 6 years in Constantinople

Then back to the monastery in Rome

EARTHQUAKES

Jesus is coming back soon!

Gregory is made
Pope Sept. 3, 590

Gregory trades leisurely freedom for business

Gregory trades leisurely freedom for business

Latin: Otium =
leisurely freedom

Gregory trades leisurely freedom for business

Latin: Otium =
leisurely freedom

Latin: negate or get the opposite
by adding neg-

Gregory trades leisurely freedom for business

Latin: Otium =
leisurely freedom

Latin: negotium = business

Latin: negate or get the opposite
by adding neg-

Gregory's as Pope

Gregory cuts a deal with the Lombard invaders

Gregory re-organizes the Church's properties

Gregory works on bringing up the level of Bishops

Gregory pushes the Rule of Benedict

Gregory changes the liturgy (worship)

Gregory went after the plague

Gregory went after the plague

“God bless you!”

Gregory went after the plague

Gregory the Great saw the forest and the trees

Gregory the Great lived a lifetime of poor health

Gregory's Writings

The first Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

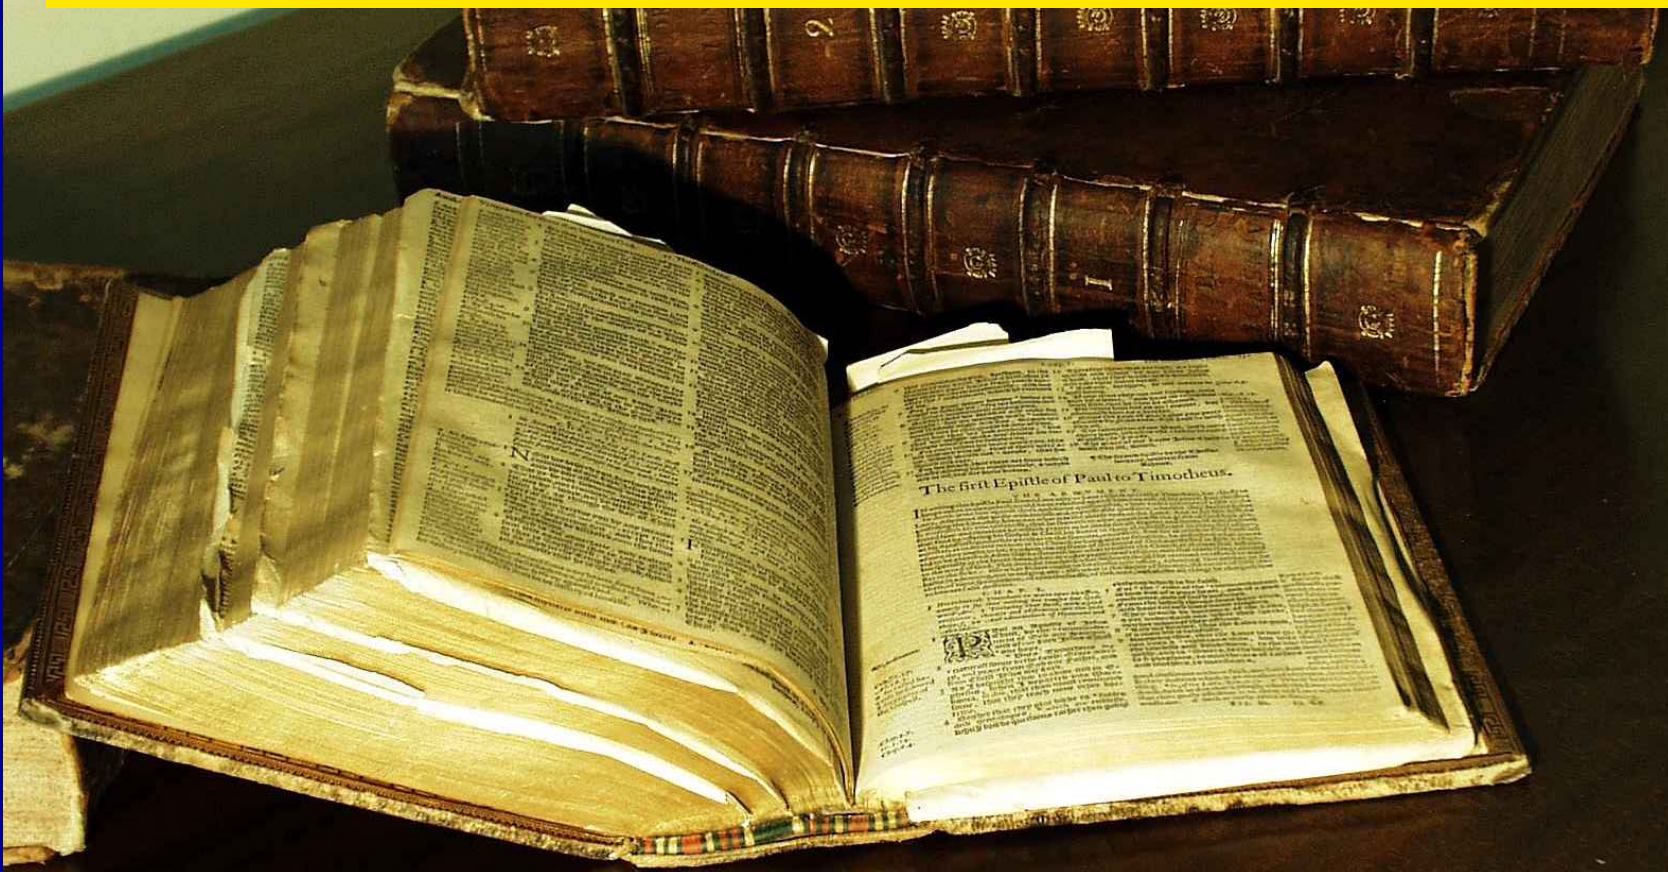

Paulus apostolus Iesus Christi et beatorum Petri et Pauli apostolorum eius ad Timotheum filium matris suae primum et deinde deus et dominus sempiternus Amen.

“Divine utterances”

“Divine utterances”

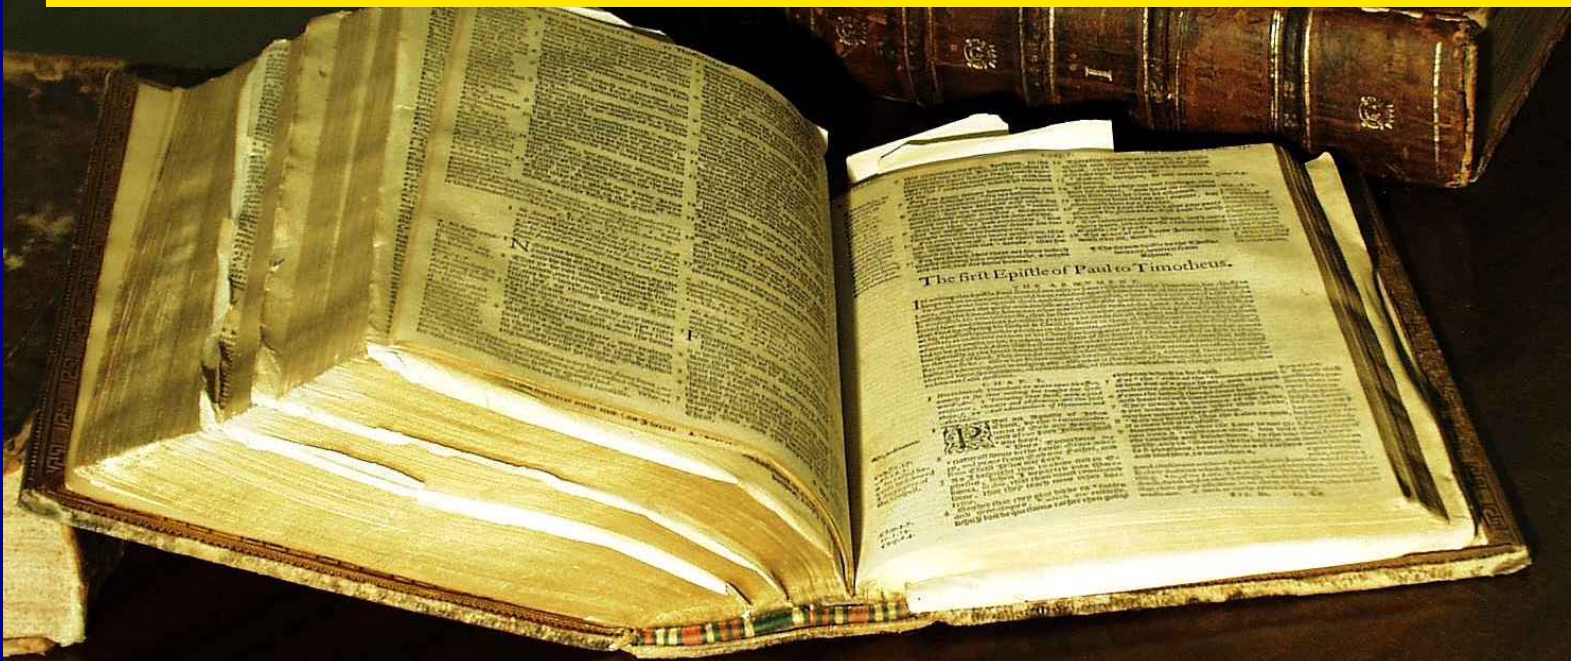

Holy Spirit is author; man is the pen

“Divine utterances”

Holy Spirit is author; man is the pen

Progressive revelation

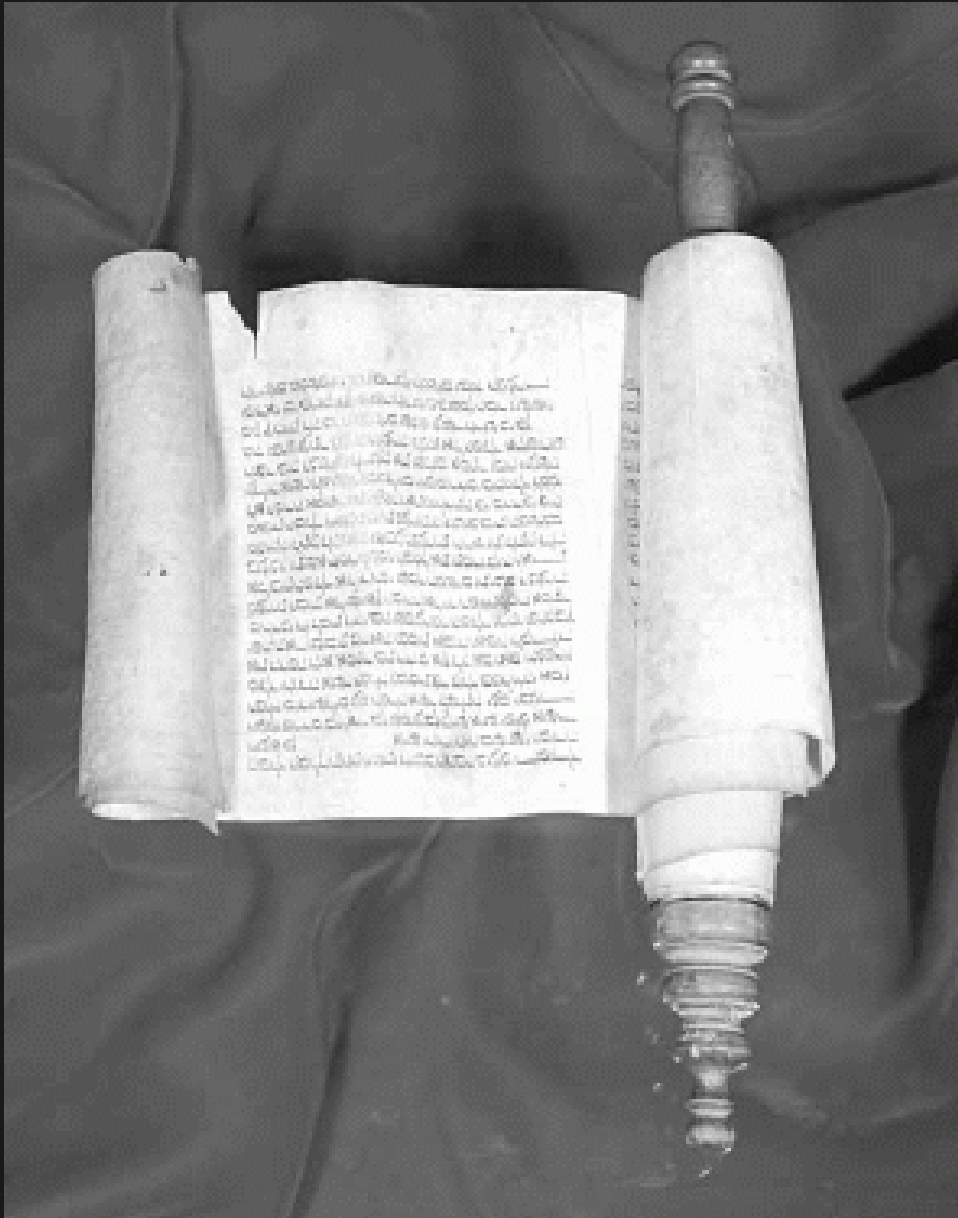

“Divine utterances”

Holy Spirit is author; man is the pen

Progressive revelation

Heavy on allegory

Ezekiel's two-sided scroll:
the obvious side and the hidden side

The first Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

Paulus apostolus Iesu Christi et Timotheus eius minister salutem in domino sempiternam vobis et tranquillitatem in domino sempiternam. Quia desidero te venire in civitatem Corinthis ut possim te et teos in pace videre et ut sciam quomodo sint vobis. Quia non habeo alium qui te veniat in civitatem Corinthis et teos in pace videre et ut sciam quomodo sint vobis.

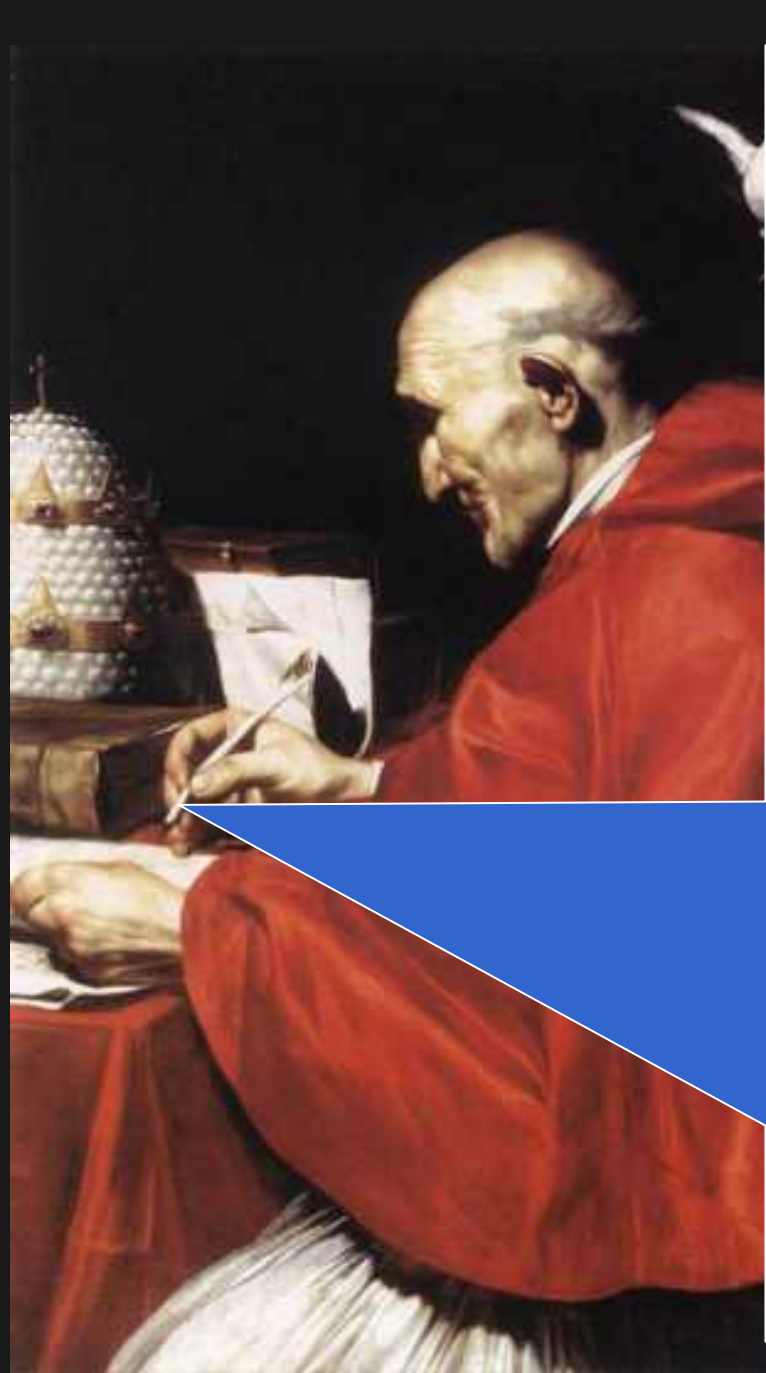

“God speaks to us with one purpose only, to draw us to love of himself and our neighbor”

Gregory on the church

The man called to pastor should live spiritually, dying to all passions of the flesh; disregard worldly prosperity; be afraid of no adversary; desire only inward wealth; not led to covet things of others; through a heart of compassion quickly forgives...

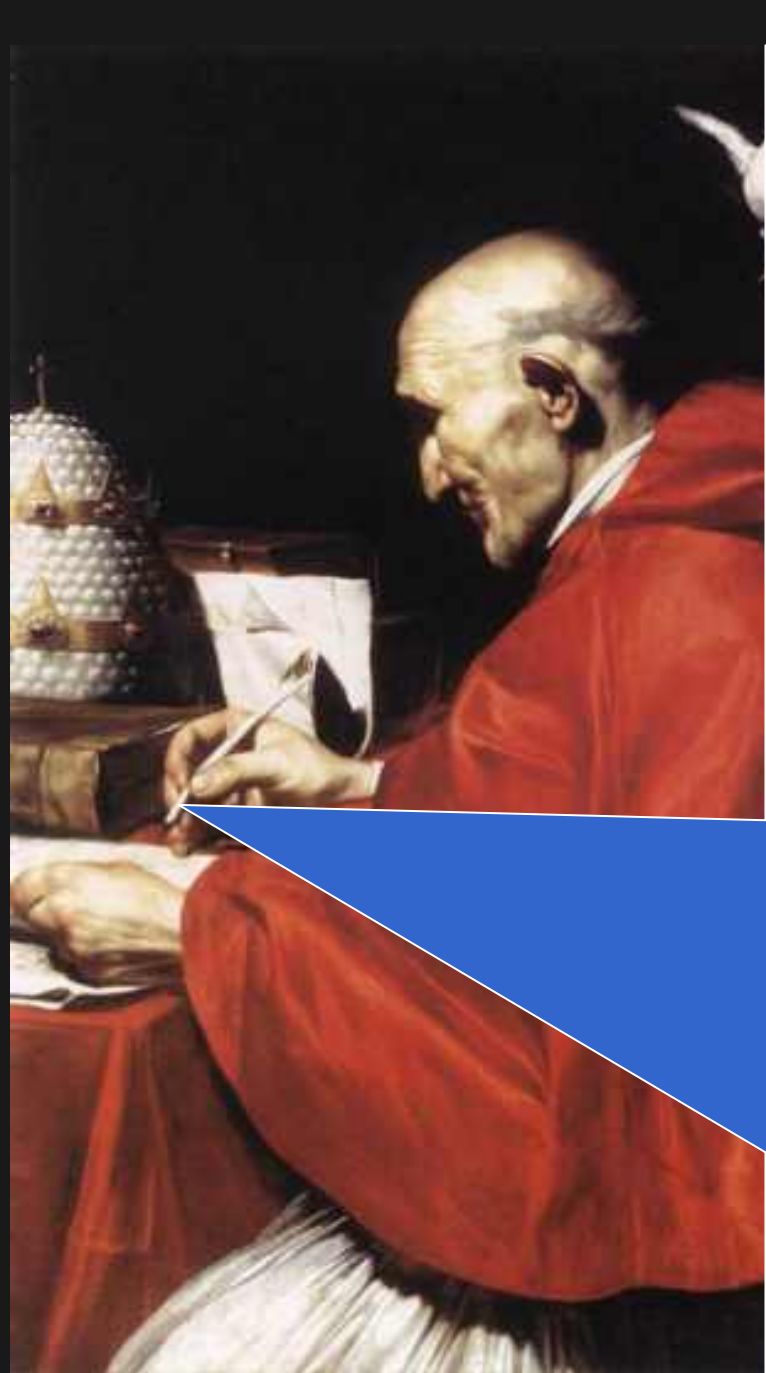

Pastors should understand how easily sin passes itself off as virtue. Often stinginess passes itself off as frugality, and on the other hand wastefulness hides as liberality. Wrath is often considered virtuous zeal; laziness with loving kindness.....

Pastors should understand the need to preach differently to different people

Admonish differently the simple and the insincere. The simple need to understand that as they always avoid deceit advantageously they should only speak truth advantageously. As lying always harms the liar, speaking truth can also sometimes cause harm.

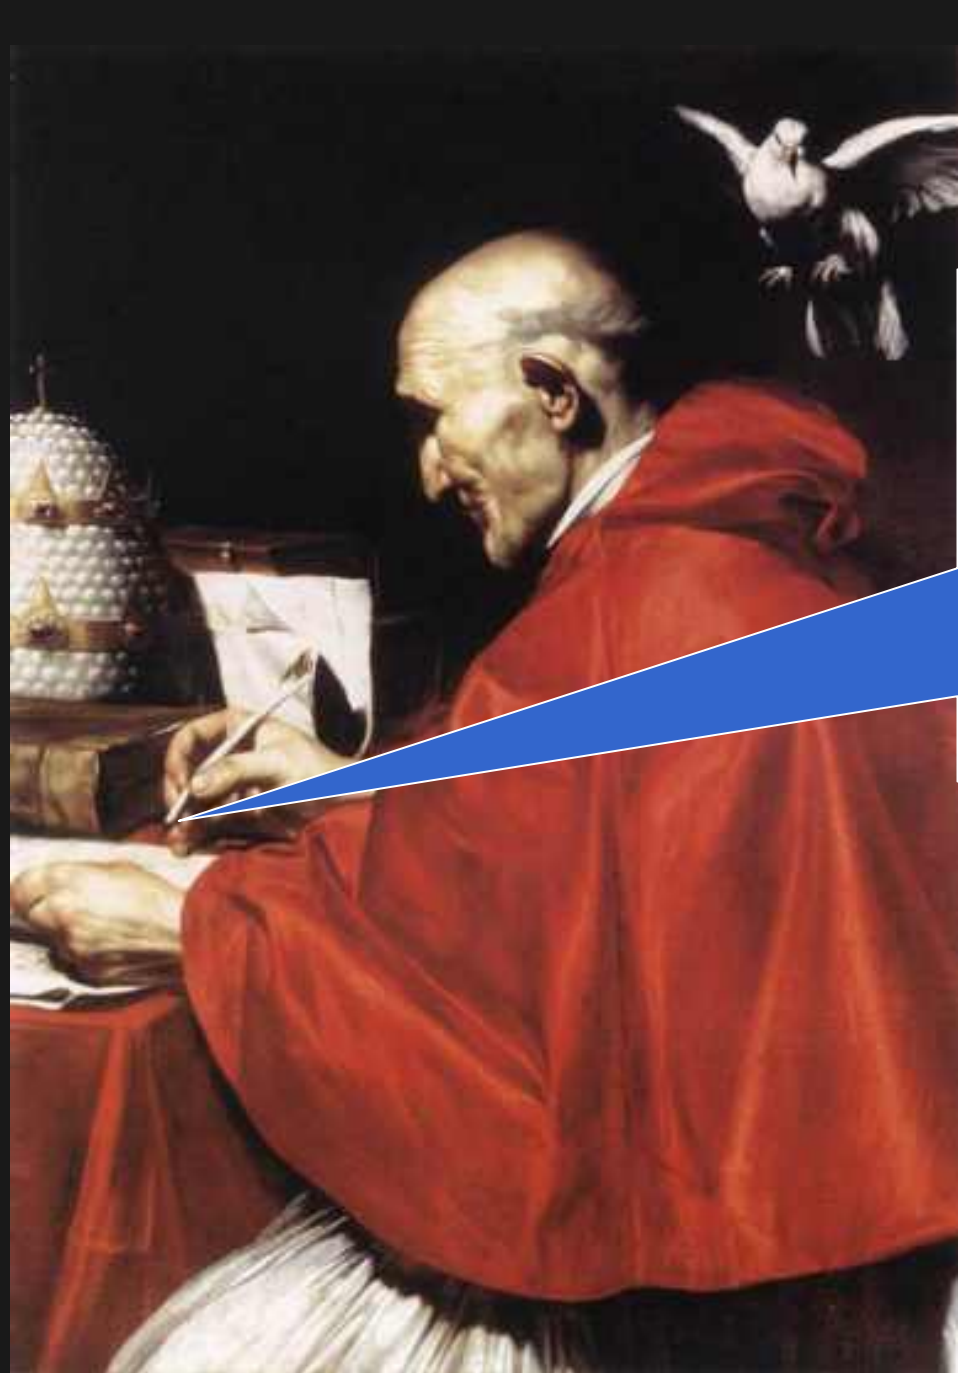

On the other hand, the insincere are admonished to learn the weight of deception. While afraid of being found out, they are often pushed into more lies and they worry over being caught. There is no better defense than sincerity, nothing easier to say than the truth.

A heart for evangelism and a liking of puns

“All the earthly things
we lose by keeping,
can be kept by giving away.”

“There is a difference between an earthly building and a heavenly building: an earthly building is constructed by gathering together what you have; a heavenly building by scattering what you have.”

Some use the things of this world as a steward for God so they may enjoy God. Others rather use God in such a manner as to try and enjoy the world.

Points for home

- Christianity is based on historical events.. We embrace that faith, not because it is convenient, nor because it is socially acceptable but because it is true.
- “And we are in Him who is true – even in His son Jesus Christ, He is the true God and eternal life.” (1 John 5:20)

Points for home

- Live to please God

“Live in order to please God, as in fact you are living. Now we ask you and urge you in the Lord Jesus to do this more and more.”
(1 Thes. 4:1)

Points for home

- Don't let poor health stop you from accomplishing things for God

“For my power is made perfect in weakness.”
(2 Cor. 12:7-10)