Frederick the wise refused to turn Luther over

The Pope sends Cardinal Cajetan to “fix” things

Three days:

- Purgatory and the merit bank
- Who interprets Scripture
- Revoco or else

Frederick the wise still refused to turn Luther over

Luther and Melancthon
debate John Eck

Luther goes international!
Then in 1520, the heat goes up... Way up...

Tract One: The Sermon on Good Works

“The first, highest, and most precious of all good works is faith in Christ!”
Consider John 6:28-29

Categories of Deeds

Good
Deeds

1. Fasting
2. Praying
3. Monasticism

~~Mundane
Deeds~~

Sinful
Deeds

1. Gluttony
2. Slothfulness
3. Cheating

Now the spiritual elite and the common man were on equal footing before God

As developed and in practice, the papacy is an institution of man rather than Scripture

Lastly Luther argues for reform

Luther wanted to strip the church of its governing powers and wealth so it would better focus on its spiritual functions

Meanwhile Luther keeps writing...

Luther's next writing does to the Church
what his last one did to society:

Tract 4:
The

Captivity of the Church

The Church
recognized seven “Sacraments”

These are physical external ways that God's grace is dispensed to people

To Luther, this was the captivity of the church

Baptism was still a sacrament where sins
were forgiven by the Word of God through faith

The Eucharist
was a sacrament where the grace of God is given through wine and bread based on the faith of the believer, not the words of the minister

Luther did not consider “penance” [confession to a priest] a sacrament

Luther viewed confirmation a good thing, but not one imparting salvation

“Marriage was part of the stranglehold of the church. It did not impart grace”

“Ordination” was not to be found in the New Testament

“Extreme Unction” was found in James and dealt with sick, not dying

October 10, 1520 the Bull
reached Luther

October 10, 1520 the Bull
reached Luther

Luther then writes the pope a letter and sends his 5th tract

Instead of going to Rome, Luther and Melanchthon have their own book burning

Luther is called before the Emperor and Church at the Diet of Worms

Q: Are these books yours?

A: Yes

Q: Do you defend them or recant?

Q: Do you defend them or recant?

A: May I have a day to answer?

“My conscience is captive to the word of God. I cannot and I will not recant anything, for to go against “conscience is neither right nor safe. God help me. Here I stand, I cannot do otherwise. Amen.”

The Emperor declares Luther an outlaw, guilty of heresy, to be arrested and punished

- Praise God for our Bibles. (And support the Gideons!)

Points for Home

- “Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near to God with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith” (Heb. 10:19-22)
