The Great Commandment

The Great Commandment

“Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.’³¹ The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no commandment greater than these.”

Mark 12:30-31 (NIV)

Points for home

The Holy Spirit empowers us to live a life pleasing to God.

“Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ² through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we rejoice in the hope of the glory of God.

³ Not only so, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; ⁴ perseverance, character; and character, hope. ⁵ And hope does not disappoint us, because God has poured out his love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, whom he has given us.” Romans 5:1-5 (NIV)
