children to grow with the Lord. Maybe we

a fellowship and friendship with sisters and brothers ships we attend because we "fit" and have something to offer the others. We might go because we see God is using this church to great purpose, and we want to be a part of his work.

These examples are reasons that focus on others, rather than the individual. That is good; it is very Pauline! The body of Christ, Paul taught, met together to commemorate/celebrate the risen Lord and to encourage and uplift each other.
The real focus for church, and really for life itself, is God.
