¹⁷ Have you not brought this upon yourself by forsaking the Lord your God, when he led you in the way?
¹⁸ And now what do you gain by going to Egypt to drink the waters of the Nile? Or what do you gain by going to Assyria to drink the waters of the Euphrates?
¹⁹ Your evil will chastise you, and your apostasy will reprove you. Know and see that it is evil and bitter for you to forsake the Lord your God, the fear of me is not in you, declares the Lord God of hosts.
²⁰ For long ago I broke your yoke and burst your bonds; but you said, "I will not serve." Yes, on every high hill and under every green tree you bowed down like a whore.
²¹ Yet I planted you a choice vine, wholly of pure seed. How then have you turned degenerate and become a wild vine? Though you wash yourself with hyacinth and use much soap, the stain of your guilt is still before me, declares the Lord God.
²² How can you say, I am not unclean, I have not gone after the Baals? Look at your way in the valley; know what you have done—a restless young camel running here and there.
²³ A wild donkey used to the wilderness, in her heat sniffing the wind! Who can restrain her lust? None who seek her need weary themselves, in her month they will find her. Keep your feet from going unshod and your throat from thirst. But you said, It is hopeless, for I have loved foreigners, and after them I will go.

²⁴ As a thief is shamed when caught, so the house of Israel shall be shamed; they, their kings, their officials, their priests, and their prophets, who say to a tree, You are my father, and to a stone, You gave me birth. For they have turned their back to me, and not their face. But in the time of their trouble they say, Arise and save us! But where are your gods that you made for yourself? Let them arise, if they can save you, for as many as your cities are your gods, O Judah.
²⁵ Why do you contend with me? You have all transgressed against me, declares the Lord. In vain have I struck your children; they took no correction; your own sword devoured your prophets, like a ravening lion. And you, O generation, behold the word of the Lord. Have I been a wilderness to Israel or a land of thick darkness? Why then do my people say, We are free, we will come no more to you? Can a virgin forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? Yet my people have forgotten me days without number.
²⁶ How well you direct your course to seek love! So that even to wicked women you have taught your ways. Also on my skirts is found the lifeblood of the guiltless poor; you did not find them breaking in. Yet in spite of all these things you say, I am innocent;

sternly his anger has turned from me.
¹⁸ Behold, I will bring you to judgment for saying, I have not sinned! How much you go about, changing your way! You shall be put to shame by Egypt as you were put to shame by Assyria. From it too you will come away with your hands on your head, for the Lord has rejected those in whom you trust, and you will not prosper by them.
¹⁹ If a man divorces his wife and she goes from him and becomes another man's wife, will he return to her? Would not that land be greatly polluted? You have played the whore with many lovers, and would you return to me? declares the Lord. Lift up your eyes to the bare heights, and see! Where have you not been ravished? By the waysides you have sat awaiting lovers like an Arab in the wilderness. You have polluted the land with your vile whoredom. Therefore the showers have been withheld, and the spring rain has not come; yet you have the forehead of a whore; you refuse to be ashamed.
²⁰ Have you not just now called to me, My father, you are the friend of my youth— will he be angry forever, will he be indignant to the end? Behold, you have spoken, but you have done all the evil that you could."

Faithless Israel Called to Repentance
¹ The Lord said to me in the days of King Josiah: "Have you seen what she did, that faithless one, Israel, how she went up on every high hill and under every green tree, and there played the whore? And I thought, After she has done all this she will return to me; but she did not return, and her treacherous sister Judah saw it. She saw that for all the adulteries of that faithless one, Israel, I had sent her away with a decree of divorce. Yet her treacherous sister Judah did not fear, but she too went and played the whore. Because she took her whoredom lightly, she polluted the land, committing adultery with stone and tree. Yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah did not return to me with her whole heart, but in pretense, declares the Lord." And the Lord said to me, "Faithless Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah. Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say,
² Return, faithless Israel, declares the Lord. I will not look on you in anger, for I am merciful, declares the Lord. I will not be angry forever. Only acknowledge your guilt, that you rebelled against the Lord your God, and scattered your favors among foreigners under every green tree, and that you have not obeyed my voice, declares the Lord.
³ Return, O faithless children, declares the Lord. For I am your master, I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion.
⁴ And I will give you shepherds after my own heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding. And when you have multiplied and increased in the land, in those
